

WONG Kai Sin, Associate Professor, graduated in 1972 with a BS degree from the University of Illinois. He received his MS and PhD degrees from the University of California at Berkeley in 1975 and 1978 respectively. He practiced geotechnical engineering in California before joining NTU in 1984. He is currently a technical advisor to several government agencies and consultancy firms. His major areas of interest are deep excavations, deep foundations, slope stability, soil improvement, land reclamation and soil-structure interaction problems. He was involved in the design and construction of many temporary works for basement and subway excavations in Singapore. The more notable ones are art centre -- Esplanade by the Bay, Marina Barrage, Business Financial Centre Complex and Marina Coastal Expressway. He was also on the Independent Investigation Panel for the LTA on the Nicoll Highway collapse.